

1 working you late, unfortunately, we are going
2 to have to turn you loose early. I'm sure
3 you don't feel like that is unfortunate, but 4 we will start up first thing tomorrow morning
5 and we will be pushing hard to try to complete
6 the evidence tomorrow. So, there is a
7 possibility tomorrow that we will work late,
8 depending on how the evidence develops. So,
9 once again, warn your families that tomorrow
10 night you may be working late, and by late
11 we may even work as late as 8:00 or 9:00
12 o'clock at night. Now, I am not saying we 13 will, but we may. So I want to warn you
14 ahead of time so you won't be mad at me,
15 but I am going to have to give you the 16 afternoon off today because we are not in a
17 position to put any more evidence on today.
18 So I am going to be able to excuse you early 19 and allow you to go home.

20 Now, before I do, I am going to have to 21 give you the same warning that I give you
22 each time. Don't discuss this case with each 23 other nor with anyone else, including your 24 family. Don't read anything in newspapers or 25 magazines or periodicals or in any written form.

1 I have asked you not to leave the courtroom
2 until I get through. Now, sit down. Pardon
3 me. Don't read anything from any newspaper,
4 magazines, periodicals, or any written form
5 concerning this case. Don't watch any 6 television programs and don't listen to any 7 radio broadcasts or don't seek any information
8 from any outside source whatsoever about this 9 case, and please do that for me again tonight.
10 And we will see you tomorrow morning. We 11 might start a little earlier.

12 Would you be able to start at 8:30,
13 Mr. Walsh?

14 MR. WALSH: Yes, sir.

15 MR. HIGGINBOTHAM: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: It's his witness, will you be 17 ready to go, Mr. Higginbotham?

18 MR. HIGGINBOTHAM: Yes, Your Honor, I'll 19 be here.

20 THE COURT: Thank you. All right, we 21 will start up at 8:30 tomorrow morning. We 22 will have 30 minutes extra which may get us
23 home 30 minutes earlier. We'll do our very 24 best to get started at 8:30. Thank you for 25 your attention today. We will be in recess
