AUSTIN, Texas, March 14, 2014 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- The 2014 list of top rated attorneys in TX as published in the October, 2013 issue of Texas Monthly includes Vic Feazell of Austin, TX. This distinction is given to only a very small percentage of Austin's attorneys each year.

Attorneys are only considered for inclusion in the list of top rated attorneys if they have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement across 12 indicators. Lawyers cannot buy their way onto the list. The selection process, recognized as legitimate by bar associations and courts across the United States, is multi-phased and includes independent research, peer nominations and peer evaluations. Only attorneys who can be retained by the general public are considered. Honorees are selected annually for each state and practice area.

Vic Feazell commented on the recognition: "TX has so many excellent lawyers, it is an honor to be included in Texas Monthly's list of top rated attorneys for 2014. I am grateful to my peers for their nomination."

About Vic Feazell: a short profile by and about the honoree:

Vic Feazell received his BA from the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor in 1972, and his law degree from Baylor School of Law in 1979. He was elected to two four-year terms as District Attorney of Waco, McLennan County, Texas, where he was active in the courtroom trying the most difficult and lengthy cases himself. He has tried scores of jury trials, including six capital murder cases and numerous complex civil trials. While earning his reputation as a hard fighting trial lawyer and crusader against corruption, Vic has obtained impressive and record breaking jury verdicts and settlements.

The plaque shown here commemorates Feazell's recognition.
