

Waco Tribune-Herald

Sunday, July 15, 1984

Batting 1.000

The courthouse crowd is kidding District Attorney Vic Feazell about his perfect record in death penalty cases. He handled the last two capital murder cases to be tried in 54th District Court.

Feazell got a death sentence in the Lake Waco murders case week before last. The other case, three years ago, also resulted in a death penalty, but that time Feazell was the defense attorney.