Can't wait to see Feazell's movie

I would like to respond to Michael Glass' Aug. 3 letter about Vic Feazell.

Vic was found not guilty by jury trials. He doesn't have to keep his head low as Glass suggested. He can walk tall and hold his head high.

It's really envy that's making Glass want to vomit. So let him go ahead and vomit. He might feel better afterwards. Frankly, I can hardly wait to see Vic's movie.
