

718 WEST 5th ST. AUSTIN, TEXAS 78701 477-6755

Citizen
Waco, Texas

OCT 25 1985

Feazell-Duncan Episode Panel Topic Sunday Night

"On the Record" a live panel news discussion program presented by KERA-TV Channel 13 in Dallas will feature a segment on the Charles Duncan televised series on Channel 8 last Spring that centered on the activities of McLennan County District Attorney Vic Feazell.

The program to be viewed at 8 p.m. features a live panel with a live audience. Dallas Attorney Bill Blackburn, also a former Dallas City Council member, will moderate the program.

John Blom, former Dallas Times Herald columnist; David Eden, Assistant Managing Editor of the Times Herald, Paula Walker, President of the Dallas Chapter Professional Journalists; Marty Haage, News Director WFAA-TV and Ned Schmurman, former Director of the National News Council and now Executive Producer of Inside Story PBS, will serve as members of the panel.

District Attorney Vic Feazell is expected to be in the audience during the show.

Spokesman for the program said, the Feazell segment would be presented during the second 15 minutes of the show. "We are going to seek to find out the rights of the individual as opposed to a public official," the spokesman said, Thursday.

"We want to discuss if Channel 8 should have interviewed Feazell and the Magazine "Big D" should have interviewed Duncan prior to this story last month."