

Waco Tribune-Herald
Tuesday, August 21, 1984

Fezell fine public servant

To the Editor:

I knew District Attorney Vic Fezell in a working relationship prior to his entering the law profession and I am proud to be his friend.

Fezell is a conscientious, level-headed, compassionate, truth-seeking person. He is tireless in his search for justice as exemplified by his efforts in the recent [David Wayne Spence] murder trial.

My belief and my prediction is that Vic Fezell is definitely headed for a higher calling in his profession and, yes, even greatness.

Sam Garrison
Waco