Dear O'bera & Jack

How are you doing today
fine, I hope.

I am just writing a few lines to say hello and we do miss both of you.

Both of us

Well O'bera hear is the truth about your mother

The money that Henry gave to your mother, that your x-husband and his wife got it, if you want her to receive any more so we can continue to fix the house and see she has food to eat.

You will have to send some more money, some how.

And please don't send it direct to her because she will only give it to the other people, will not use it for herself or for the house.

She does not have any money now.

We have the bathroom.
