

Vic Fezell To Speak Bethel Baptist Church

Vic Fezell, above, will conduct the services at a revival at the Bethel Baptist Church February 19-21 at 7 o'clock each evening. He is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Fred Fezell. Rev. Fezell is pastor of the church.

Vic has been a Christian since an early age. He preached his first sermon at the age of thirteen. He has studied psychology at the University of Texas. At present, he is a junior at Mary Hardin-Baylor Baptist College in Belton, Tex., majoring in sociology, and pastors the Dyess Grove Baptist Church at Temple, Tex.

An employee of the Bell County Juvenile Probation Department in Belton, he is also actively involved in the Bell County Drug Prevention Program, giving speeches and seminars on the subject.

At 8:15 a. m. Friday morning Vic will speak at the Holly Ridge High School.