294 Round table planned

A Dallas television station's news series about McLennan County District Attorney ~~Vic Feazell~~ will be part of a media round table discussion on media accountability to air live at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Dallas public broadcasting station Channel 13, KERA, is airing the program "On the Record," in which a panel of lawmakers, journalists and private citizens will discuss media accountability.

One of the topics scheduled to be discussed is a series of reports by reporter Charles Duncan that aired on Channel 8, WFAA, in June and July. The reports were critical of Feazell and raised questions about Feazell's dismissal of driving-while-intoxicated cases.

Panelists for the hour-long round table will be Feazell, former Dallas Times Herald columnist John (Joe Bob Briggs) Bloom, WFAA news director Marty Haag, Dallas Times Herald editor Will Jarrett, former National News Council director Ned Schnurman, and Paula Walker, WFAA news manager and current president of the Dallas chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists. Dallas attorney Bill Blackburn will serve as moderator.
