We, the people of Waco realize that you, the people of Georgetown must be sick to death of hearing about Henry Lucas. It seems to be never-ending. Just last week, the man in Delaware confessed to murdering his wife. Another man who might have gone free had it not been for the courage of Vic Feazell and Jim Mattox and the grand jury in Waco. Colonel Adams has retaliated every way he possibly can against Feazell with his admitted ordering of an investigation into Feazell which has been going on now for six months.

Those who support Feazell, proudly I am one, are very excited, you see, the people of "60 Minutes" came to Waco about a week ago and are doing a story about Feazell and what has happened to him since he brought Lucas to town. Harry Reasoner will be interviewing Feazell and the show will air sometime in November or December. I hope you, the people of Georgetown will watch.

The situation with Lucas has not helped either of our cities and I do hope that the matter will have a conclusion soon.

Yours truly,
Joe C. McDonald
